About Tim Bloyce

“Our much-loved colleague Tim Bloyce recently received the devastating news that he has been diagnosed with Motor Neurone Disease (MND). We are all having to come to terms with this dreadful situation and we want to do as much as we can to support Tim and his family at this difficult time.

“Ocee Design work closely with charity The Furniture Makers’ Company to support our great industry and the people that work within it. We saw an opportunity to not only get more involved in their fundraising efforts but also where we could highlight one of Tim’s great passions, football.

“No doubt, he has shared with you his experiences of playing competitively until relatively recently and continuing to score goals at 59 years of age. For a decade now, The Furniture Makers’ Company have organised an annual 5-a-side football tournament. Considering the above and in recognition of his amazing commitment and achievements with Ocee Design in his 29 years of employment with the business, the tournament will be re-named the ‘Tim Bloyce Cup’ in his honour.”

Summer’s hottest tournament is back

The Furniture Makers’ Company’s annual five-a-side tournament is back in 2022 after two years on the side-line so we are gearing up for the biggest contest yet.

With the support and sponsorship of Ocee Design, we are very excited that this year teams will be competing to be the inaugural winners of the ‘Tim Bloyce Cup’.

If you’re looking for a team building day, want to reward some of your employees, or you just want bragging rights over the rest of the industry, the Tim Bloyce Cup five-a-side football tournament is perfect. Mixed gender teams from offices, factories, showrooms or just groups of friends of all abilities are very welcome.

Kick off will be at 1.00pm with the event commencing with a group stage. Every team will be guaranteed a minimum of three matches. The winners of the groups will then go forward to the elimination rounds. Once the action is over, the fun-packed day will finish with a BBQ buffet before we crown a new winner in the prize giving.

Think your company has got what it takes to go the distance? Only one team will get to raise the Tim Bloyce Cup in victory. Will it be yours? We look forward to seeing you on the pitch.
